

The Truth

Sacred name of Lord Ram is true; truth is also the gateway for liberation. Ajagar (name of serpent) thought, he would eat Krishna and would easily digest him. But when daggers started doing rounds in Ajagar's stomach, Ajagar was finished like a cracker and Lord Krishna remained safe. Is it possible for you to eat, suppress and hide the truth? This truth does not spare any body. When Yadavas (descendant of Lord Krishna) started teasing the truth and later got it mixed with earth, it grew again and finished Krishna along with Yadavas and the entire Dwarika (a city where Sh. Krishna lived) got submerged in water.

O! My dear to remain under the control of your senses is to die being dependent. You are true-self, but you need to recognize this fact. When you recognize your real nature, you will come to know that how sun is shining, wind is blowing and sea is dancing out of your fear. When you get enlightened, your entire body gets fulfilled with the light of truth, as the light in phanoos (lots of lamp shades put together) does.
