

Discourses By Shri Maharajji Through Letters To The Residents of The Ashram

Some times Shri Maharajji would love to wander out of the ashram for some days, but during this period He used to write letters to the residents of the ashram. We are producing the extracts from such letters here. These include some very inspiring discourses.

1. Always follow the things which are good for your well being & progress.
2. Always remain involved in performing deeds that lead you to God.
3. Always remain involved in serving cows, growing trees & remembering God.
4. Surrender all your deeds to God.
5. Hindus, Muslims, Christians & all others have emerged from that one God.
6. All belong to you & you belong to all. Treat every one in this manner.
7. We have emerged from God & will merge back into Him.
8. In fact it is that God everywhere, who is ultimate. We should fully surrender ourselves to Him.
9. There is nothing else in this creation except that one God.
10. The essence of all the earthen vessels shall always remain earth. In the same way the essence of Hindus, Muslims, and Christians including the entire universe is that one almighty God.
11. We are thankful to the supreme Lord & bow to Him with every single cell of our blood.
12. Every single cell of this universe is also bowing to His feet.
13. I belong to the supreme God; all other relations are untrue. One should believe this.
14. You are lost & bound in your identity, not recognizing your true self, which is the Supreme God.
15. All of you shall be enlightened & liberated some day, and consequently you shall realize the myth of difference existing in this creation.
16. As a mirror reflects your face, you should also see yourself in all other beings.
17. Whenever you serve drinking water, resolve that who ever drinks this water shall have each & every cell of his body filled with love for God.
18. The food should be cooked and served with the same resolution as in the case of drinking water, the human beings, thus fed, shall benefit in a big way.
19. Similarly, when you plant seeds, you should resolve to be blessed by Lord Shiva.
20. Whenever a mother conceives, she should resolve to have a great devotee of God.
21. Your each & every act should be surrendered to God. Live for God & get eliminated for God.
22. The supreme Lord is compassionate & forgiving, you should also follow Him.
23. You should wish the same for others what you wish for yourself.
24. If you greet others with love, they will reciprocate in the same manner.
25. Like an echo of a well, what you give others, the same you get back.
26. If you call some one with honor, you shall be called with the same honor.
27. If you protect others, they will protect you. If you hurt others, they will also hurt you.
28. In earlier times the priests in India used to hurt the untouchables, this made them full of revenge. As a result these untouchables took birth in Ghazani along with the fire of revenge towards the priests & eventually they took their revenge by hurting the priests here in India.
29. That is why it is said that your own deeds make you happy or miserable.
30. That is why you should love all. Love reflects the God. Love is also a path to God.
31. Reflect your good thoughts not only through your speech but through your deeds as well.
32. Always believe in God as He is your power & hope. He is helping & protecting you.

33. If you remember God for a moment, He will remember you for many moments as He had remembered Bhishma during Mahabharata.
34. Surrender the flowers of your life in the honour of God who is present in your heart.
35. Always make your creed-caste, family and village famous with your good deeds.
36. Serving parents & obeying them is God, take it like this.
37. Always hold on to your religion & never convert to any other religion.
38. Don't hesitate to put your life at stake when it comes to your dynasty.
39. Love is the ultimate power; it can't be useless at any point in time. When love emerges inside you, nobody can stop your power from growing.
40. Try to observe my feelings in your mind as these can be expressed neither through conversation nor through letters.
